MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LOAN—On improved real estate in city limits. W. B. Norton, 605 James Bldg. 28-1-23

SALE OF REAL ESTATE

In obedience to a decree of the county court at Chattanooga, made in the case of Miss Catherine H. de Saba et al. vs. ex parte, I will, on Saturday, March 23, 1918, at noon, at the west door of the courthouse in Chattanooga, sell to the highest and best bidder the real estate (a town lot) in said decree described, being lot No. 1 in block No. 1 of the subdivision of the east half of lot No. 10 of the de Saba home place, at East Lake, in the Fifth District of Hamilton county, Tennessee.

Said sale will be for one hundred and fifty dollars cash and the balance on a credit of six and twelve months and in full of the equity of redemption. Notes drawing interest from the day of sale, with good personal security, will be required of the purchaser, and a lien will be retained on the real estate sold, as further security.

Feb. 25, 1918.

VIC MORAN

New Orleans 140-Pounder Who Meets Jack Britton Here Wednesday Night.

Confident, smiling, not what you'd call handsome, yet without the terrible fighting face of a Fulton or even a Ted Lewis, Vic Moran, the boy who is to meet Jack Britton here Wednesday night, blew into town Sunday and is working out as a preface to the affair. Moran tips the scales right around the 140 mark. It is even probable that he will work down to 137 before the steps into the ring. But Manager Levy has a specific understanding that there is to be no stalling about weights this time. Moran knows Britton weighs 145, and there's no kick coming.

Vic won his last four encounters. These victories were over Pete Hartley, Alie Natch, Hille Corney and Walter Barler. Last year he stood Donnie Leonard to one of the stiffest ten-round fights that Leonard has faced in some seasons. So it would appear that the Moran-Britton encounter should be some breezy affair. Britton, it is generally known, is the only man in Ted Lewis' class that the champion can't lick. What fans have good reason to look forward to, and what they want, is a fast and furious fight between two boys who know the science of the game and are fairly matched. Levy once handled Moran and has confidence in his ability.

Good Bantam Fight. Hahn, the bantamweight whom Levy has taken under his wing, is to be given his first showing in a local fight here March 25. Hahn is to meet Young Sandow and a breezy fight of a new character to Chattanooga fans should result.

Jack Johnson's "Mammy" Is Dead in Chicago

Chicago, March 18.—Tiny Johnson, 74, mother of Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, died at her home here last night. Johnson, who is said to be in Buenos Aires, is a fugitive from justice, having been convicted here in 1913 for violating the Mann act and sentenced to a term in federal prison.

FOR SALE—Real Estate. FOR SALE—350-acre farm, thirteen miles out, on good road; seven-room house, water in house, three good barns, three tenant houses; 200 acres in cultivation; seven springs. Only $50 per acre. The best stock farm I know of. A. Brown, 195 West Ninth. Main 5892. 6-20

FOR SALE—Sand mountain is the place you are looking for. Perfect business and the land only $10 per acre. If you don't want but forty acres I will let you have that much, or as much as you want. J. A. Brown, 135 West Ninth. Main 5892. 6-20

LOST. LOST—Saturday night, one black veil, between Chickamauga park and St. Elmo. Call Main 1252. Reward. 1-18

FOR RENT—Miscellaneous. FOR RENT—Lunch stand at Smith's place, 601 East Ninth street. 4-23

FOR SALE—Bicycles, tires and repairs. I have not the largest stock to select from, also the largest stock of repair parts to be found anywhere in Chattanooga. This, together with my nineteen years' experience in the bicycle business, makes me best prepared to take care of your bicycle requirements. ED MARLER, 927 Market St. 4-23

For a brief time in the heyday of the career of her son Tiny knew a prosperity and notoriety such as seldom comes to a negro "mammy," but the curious who gazed at the house on Wabash avenue today saw the mute testimony of fallen pomp—a sign reading "Boards Wanted."

When Jack became champion and money rolled in upon him, he bought the house and presented it to his mother. He bought her gowns and jewelry and had his automobiles and employed a chauffeur to drive it. Then came the champion's conviction of violating the Mann act, his flight and the forfeiture of the heavy bonds under which he was at liberty. The automobile went to the house was mortgaged, and then came the last resort—"boards wanted."

Children's Coughs and Colds. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a favorite with mothers for their children. That it has well merited the esteem in which it is held is shown by the following extract from a letter to the manufacturers by Mrs. T. H. Still, Charleston, Ill.: "Last winter our little boy, two years of age, had a severe cold that settled on his lungs and we were greatly worried over his condition. He had a very persistent cough that hung onto him, despite all the treatment we gave him until I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation relieved him almost immediately and two bottles of it cured him."—(Adv.)

RINGGOLD BANK ROBBERS COVER UP THEIR TRACKS

No Trace Found of Men Who Did Job or of Cash They Carried Away.

(Special to The News.) Ringgold, Ga., March 18.—The professional yegmen, who disturbed the solemnity of this little town until officials entered the bank Thursday morning and found the interior looking like a Kansas cyclone had struck it and the cash all gone, have covered their tracks completely, unless the sheriff has something up his sleeve, which he deems best not to divulge. Some think the wily sheriff knows something which he will not tell.

True, as stated in The News, the town slept on in peaceful and tranquil slumber until the robbers gathered even the last penny from the cash drawer at the Ringgold bank, but they wouldn't sleep the next time. They couldn't do it again. Drop a pin on the sidewalk after dark and all Ringgold would be astir. But lightning never strikes twice in the same place and neighboring towns are expecting a visit from the night hawks as soon as excitement subsides.

It develops that two unknown men caught a freight train at Grapaville the first station north of here, and made their way toward Chattanooga, "beating a ride" with over $4,000 as excess baggage. It is said that a strange man was lounging around here for a couple of days preceding the robbery, presumably taking in the "lay of the land." But a strange man is no unusual sight in Ringgold and elicited no particular comment, for this is no bootlegging town, neither is it a moonshiner's paradise.

Shattered safe lies on the sidewalk in front of the bank building as a memento of the episode that woke Ringgold up—the next day. Streaks of soap are plainly visible all around the safe and the door is ajar, for the door from its hinges and shattered the whole front of the safe. It looks like the work of professionals who made a complete job and a "perfect getaway," leaving nothing to indicate from whence they came or whither they went.

GOVERNMENT TO TAKE CONTROL OF COAL. President Orders Licensing of Practically All Dealers, Jobbers and Producers.

Washington, March 18.—The coal industry—vital to winning the war—will pass under rigid government control April 1. In a proclamation Saturday night, President Wilson ordered the licensing, with exceptions, of all producers, jobbers and dealers in coal and coke. At the same time the fuel administration issued drastic regulations classifying the industry. The profits of middle men, jobbers, selling and purchasing agents. Selling agents for anthracite, performing no service whatever, were cut off without any profit at all; those rescreening the coal were allowed 5 cents a ton for this service. This rule, it was explained, will automatically eliminate this class of middle men. Purchasing agents who buy for another without becoming the owner of the coal may charge 15 cents a ton for delivery east of Buffalo, and 30 west of Buffalo, with an additional 5 cents per ton in each case for rescreening at ports. So-called "purchasing agents," who, in reality become owners of the coal, are barred from extorting any "commission" whatever. There can be but one commission paid for the purchasing service; or if there are two or more purchasers their combined commissions must not exceed that of one.

EIGHTY-FIVE NAMES ON WAR CASUALTY LIST

Eight Americans, Including One Officer, Killed in Action. Six Die of Accident.

Washington, March 18.—Eighty-five names, including those of nine officers—one killed in action, one in an accident, and seven slightly wounded—were contained in the casualty list issued Saturday by the war department. The list was divided as follows:

Killed in action, 8.
Died of wounds, 2.
Died of disease, 6.
Died from undetermined cause, 1.
Slightly wounded, 58.

It was explained at the department that with two or three exceptions the names in the list were called Saturday by Gen. Pershing. The exceptions were names held over from Friday's casualty report, because of difficulties in checking. Most of the forty-odd names held up Friday, however, were those of men recommended for promotion, or mentioned in various activities of the expeditionary forces. They at first were taken to be casualties.

Saturday's list, the first in weeks to contain the names of no men severely wounded, follows:

LIEUTENANT, John Norman, SERGEANT, Louis E. Lottew, CORPORAL, Leo H. Rogers, PRIVATE, Fred M. Eager, C. E. Lugginsland, Claude W. Newles, Browe Petty, Oscar Swartz.

Died of Wound, CORPORAL, Marvin Bunn, PRIVATE, Dan P. Bracelin, Died of Disease, CORPORAL, Ignatius Fleming, H. H. Krombach, Walter E. Furen, Percy S. Bosworth.

Privates, John Galloway, Charles R. Tapager, Chas. M. Hoerning, F. H. Welch, Arthur E. Fisher, T. Jos. Froulx, (Wagoner).

Died of Accidents, LIEUTENANT, Andrew Carl Ortmyer, CORPORAL, Clifford J. Stevens, Privates, John J. Brannon, Peter Cazan, George McKee, John E. Hawkins.

Died, Cause Unknown, SERGEANT, Byrd W. Penrod, Wounded Slightly, MAJOR, John W. Dwyer, CAPTAIN, Harry B. Whitely, LIEUTENANTS, Blake H. Cooley, Herbert J. Jones.
